

IEU

1. There are reportedly a number of non-teaching employees in independent schools, especially in the Catholic system, who have been told that they have been or could be stood down for the foreseeable future, do you have a grasp on how many people this has affected and the impact on them?
2. Have any independent schools or Catholic Education SA applied to be a part of the Job Keeper program? Where this has not occurred, can you provide advice about why this is not happening?