THE IEU IS PEOPLE LIKE ME

At the IEU, we understand that you became a teacher so that you could teach.

We also understand that by teaching you may encounter situations with students, colleagues or management that risk your livelihood—particularly if you stand up against injustice to your students, your colleagues or yourself. That includes fighting for better conditions and fair workload.

Importantly, we also understand that to be a teacher, your employer should treat you with respect, professionalism and fairness.

Many of us in the IEU office (and Executive) are, or were, teachers. We are people like you.

This makes the IEU your ideal support team, enabling you to focus on teaching.

The IEU is people like me...

UNIONS HAVE ALREADY HELPED ME

By organising workers to actively work together towards common goals for themselves, their industry and the community, unions have helped them achieve:

- The right of workers to form a Union which brings workers together to collectively achieve fairness for workers, families and community members in workplaces, industries and communities
- Changes to industrial relations legislation for all workers – eg. getting rid of Work Choices
- Awards which set down minimum wages and working conditions
- Equal pay
- Long service leave
- Loading for working on evenings, nights and weekends
- Paid public holidays
- Periodic wage increases
- Maternity/adoption/parental leave
- Annual leave and leave loading
- Provision of protective clothing and equipment by employers
- Occupational health, safety and welfare laws
- Compensation for injury
- Superannuation
- The right to be given notice and to be consulted about changes at work (eg., new technology, planned retrenchments, new working arrangements and organisational restructures)
- Personal/Carer's leave
